Section 1: Email of Request

Subject: Catching up on Tuesday's missed lecture

Hi Nandhini mam,

I hope you're having a good week.

I'm reaching out because I unfortunately had to miss our last lecture due to a sudden fever. I'm feeling much better now and want to make sure I stay on track with the coursework.

Would it be possible to get a copy of the presentation slides or notes from the class I missed? Additionally, please let me know if there were any important announcements or upcoming deadlines I need to be aware of.

Thanks so much for your time and understanding.

Best regards,

Yashwanth Reddy
2620030553

Section 2: Email of Update

Subject: Progress Update: Viwentiaa 2026 Organizing Committee

Dear Nandhini mam,

I wanted to give you a quick status update on where the organizing committee stands with the preparations for Viwentiaa 2026.

So far, things are moving along really well. We've successfully finalized the event schedule, locked in our keynote speakers, and secured the main venue on campus.

Our main hurdle right now is finalizing the catering contracts, as we are trying to negotiate better rates to stay within budget, but we expect to have that resolved by Friday. Looking ahead, our next big focus is launching the social media marketing campaign across campus early next week.

Please let me know if you'd like to see the detailed schedule or if you need any other information from our end.

Thanks for your ongoing guidance!

Warmly,

Yashwanth Reddy
Organizing Committee Member, Viwentiaa 2026

Section 3: Email of Scheduling

Subject: Finding a time to discuss my project proposal

Hi Nandhini mam,

I hope you're doing well.

I'm currently putting the finishing touches on my project proposal and would love to get your feedback on my approach before the submission deadline.

Would you have 10 or 15 minutes to chat about it sometime this week? I'm generally free on Wednesday between 2:00 PM and 4:00 PM, or Thursday morning before 11:30 AM. If neither of those windows works for you, please let me know what day fits best in your schedule.

Looking forward to your thoughts!

Best,

Yashwanth Reddy
2620030553